

Catholic Cemeteries & Crematoria

in partnership with the Southern Metropolitan Cemetery Trust (Woronora and Eastern Suburbs) have partnered and identified our wish to provide support to those who have lost a loved one through suicide. We are undertaking a number of initiatives to support the families, friends and communities of those who have been lost.

* Mention My Name Remembrance Service - This service will be hosted by Bishop Terry Brady at St Mary's Cathedral on Wednesday 2 September commencing at 7pm. This service will honour and remember the names of those who have lost their lives through suicide or misadventure. A Juniper Tree of Hope will symbolically highlight and recognise those loved ones who have been lost. This service will be non-denominational and open to all in the community. Providing opportunity for consolation, reflection, solace, prayer and solidarity. It will be an opportunity to remember and not forget those who have gone. Acknowledging the impact, stigma for many who mourn after suicide. We would like to invite you to attend and also to please pass this information on to your own communities (work and personal) so that many are aware of this special evening.

INFORM CAEC NEWSLETTER.

The latest issue - Embracing the Year of Mercy is now available. Pope Francis has proclaimed an Extraordinary Jubilee of Mercy, from the Feast of the Immaculate Conception (8th December 2015) to the Feast of Christ the King (20th November 2016). Fr Ken Barker MGL discusses why we need a Holy Year of Mercy, and what Pope Francis is hoping to achieve. Copies available at the back of St Joachim's Church, Lidcombe or from the Mustard Seed Bookshop.

Immaculate Heart of Mary

Lord you place deep in our hearts the love of Mary Help of Christians.

Through her prayers grant wisdom to our leaders and integrity to our citizens.

Under her protection may Australia be granted harmony, justice and peace. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

BULLETIN

23rd August 2015

Entrance Antiphon

Turn your ear, O Lord, and answer me; save the servant who trusts in you, my God. Have mercy on me, O Lord, for I cry to you all the day long.

First Reading: Jos 24:1-2. 15-18

Responsorial Psalm : Ps 33:2-3. 16-23. R. v.9

(R.) Taste and see the goodness of the Lord.

1. I will bless the Lord at all times, his praise always on my lips; in the Lord my soul shall make its boast. The humble shall hear and be glad. (R.)
2. The Lord turns his face against the wicked to destroy their remembrance from the earth. The Lord turns his eyes to the just and his ears to their appeal. (R.)
3. They call and the Lord hears and rescues them in all their distress. The Lord is close to the broken-hearted; those whose spirit is crushed he will save. (R.)
4. Many are the trials of the just man but from them all the Lord will rescue him. He will keep guard over all his bones, not one of his bones shall be broken. (R.)
5. Evil brings death to the wicked; those who hate the good are doomed. The Lord ransoms the souls of his servants. Those who hide in him shall not be condemned. (R.)

Second Reading : Eph 5:21-32

Gospel Acclamation : See Jn 6:63. 68

Alleluia, alleluia!

Your words, Lord, are spirit and life: you have the words of everlasting life. Alleluia!

Gospel : Jn 6:60-69

Communion antiphon:

The earth is replete with the fruits of your work, O Lord; you bring forth bread from the earth and wine to cheer the heart.

Reflection by Fr Michael Tate:

I remember seeing a James Bond film in which the Voodoo priest could summon the Living Dead – called Zombies – people hovering between life in the grave and life above ground level, but ultimately trapped as human beings living a grave-dominated existence.

There are billions of the Living Dead around the world. People, apparently like you and me, but in fact living with the belief that the grave will mark the extinction of their life.

But our ears are attuned to pick up words which sound the possibility of a different destiny, a different reality. We have heard a voice which speaks the truth, a voice which speaks of a more beautiful reality. That voice says that you and I, individually, personally, are star dust with a marvellous destiny: a destiny that will see our ensouled bodies transformed, transfigured, translucent with Divine Light and energy.

The voice is that of Our Lord Jesus Christ. We hear that voice from within the Church, which has transmitted the tradition of 'The Voice' for twenty centuries.

Heeding that Voice, I move from the company of the Living Dead to the companionship of the Conqueror of Death. I am no longer a 'Dead Man Walking' but a man alive with the reality of eternal life already within me.

That is why when I hear the challenge: 'Do you also wish to go away?' I enter into that tradition and answer with St Peter, I answer in the company of billions of others over twenty centuries: 'Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life.'

We could pause for a moment and pray that, living in the tradition of the Church, I may hear the Word in the Gospel and take that Word within myself in Holy Communion so that I might be no longer a 'Dead Man Walking', but a human being alive with the reality of eternal life already within me.

*UNITED IN FAITH, GUIDED BY THE HOLY SPIRIT NOURISHED BY THE EUCHARIST, COMMITTED TO PROCLAIMING THE GOSPEL. WE STRIVE TO LIVE AS GOD ASKS
"to act justly, to love tenderly and to walk humbly with your God" (Micah 6:8)*

Fulfilling International Mission for Skilled Volunteers

Communities in East Timor, PNG, Kenya, Kiribati, Samoa and elsewhere are asking for teachers, health and community development workers, administrators, agricultural workers and others. You can assist to mentor local workers in your field of expertise. This will provide opportunities for those who have not had the advantage of an Australian education; improve the operations of organisations in vital sectors of local communities and so assist poverty reduction.

 For 55 years Palms Australia has assisted such communities to recruit, prepare and support Australian Catholics who volunteer to share their lives and skills. We have increasing numbers of requests from communities who believe this approach, more than anything else, assists their self-reliance and sustainable development.

Want to know more? Information Session will be held on Saturday 12 September at 11:00am, at Aquinas Academy, 141 Harrington Street, The Rocks. RSVP to leanne@palms.org.au or call 02 9518 9551.

Annual Catechist Mass

2:00pm Sunday 20th September 2015 St Mary's Cathedral

An Irish priest is driving down to New York and gets stopped for speeding.

The state trooper smells alcohol on the priest's breath and then sees an empty wine bottle on the floor of the car.

He says, "Father, have you been drinking?"
 "Just water," says the priest, fingers crossed.

The trooper says, "Then why do I smell wine?" The priest looks at the bottle and says, "Praise be to God! He's done it again!"

Combined Parishes Dinner/Dance

The Combined Parishes Dinner/Dance was a great success. We collected $10.363 from the night. The money will be divided between Mat Dei and St Raphael's. We thank all those who made the evening memorable—Fund Raising Committee.

Youth Ministry Partnership Program

There is an initiative undertaken by the catholic youth services (CYS) that is looking at trying to build up the youth ministry in our parish. This initiative incorporates the upcoming World Youth Day 2016 in Krakow, Poland and is known as the "Youth Ministry Partnership Program".

This program involves the parish taking on a young adult over a 12 month period to serve as a youth ministry coordinator (YMC) at the parish. In turn, the parish is asked to offer a donation to the YMC's World Youth Day pilgrimage.

This would be a great way to start a youth ministry in our parish. The Catholic Youth Services people will support both the parish and the YMC throughout the whole process with formation evenings, resources, regular updates and parish visits (if required).

It would be much appreciated if any young adult in our parish who feels that God is calling them, to take part in this program. For more details contact the Parish Ministry Coordinator Michael Fernandes 0437 517 758
